This month's General Membership Meeting of the Hopkins County Home Builders Association is being sponsored by

MADISONVILLE GARAGE DOORS

Monday, May 23, 2016

Madisonville Garage Doors Showroom
1000 Margaret Court (behind #9 Steakhouse)

Meet & Greet 6:30 p.m. Dinner 7:00 p.m.
Speaker: Chris Rothschild, VP Madisonville Garage Doors

Now.....a few words from your sponsor:

Madisonville Garage Doors is the area's ONLY authorized CHI overhead door and Lift Master dealer in the Madisonville area. As a locally operated business, they pride themselves on quality residential and commercial products and quality workmanship. They also love to give back to the community by helping local not-for-profits, school leagues, dance teams, etc. So every purchase you make from them helps them give back to our community and make it a better place to live.

Their showroom is located just off North Main Street on Margaret Court and it is equipped with fully functioning doors and operators on display so you can see and touch the mechanisms (springs, gear kits, rollers, hinges, keyless entries, etc.) that make their doors work like a charm. In addition to their showroom display doors, they have many more custom designs that can be seen that may be the perfect fit for your next project!

So make plans now to attend this month's meeting and see for yourself, all the great products on display. And when your next job calls for new garage or replacement doors and you want local, honest, professional help, make sure to contact them. They are open Monday-Friday 9:00-5:00 or can meet afterhours by appointment; contact them at 270-821-DOOR (3667) or visit their website at madisonvillegaragedoors.com.
